WANTED PAY

For Testifying in Mary Givens Behalf.

Mary Givens, colored, asked several persons to testify in her behalf in the police court this morning to prove that she did not take a basket of coal from Barnes & Elliott's flats. They refused without the payment of a dollar each, and this is the reason she couldn't establish her innocence this morning.

Judge Sanders, however, gave her the benefit of the doubt and dismissed the warrant against her, provided she would hereafter stay away from the coal yards and not even pick it up from the ground.

HAD A "RAZZER"

And Hillard Sanford Used His Hand on Her Face.

Hillard Sanford, colored, claimed that Minnie Lyons, also colored, attempted to reach a razor with which to cut him, in a West Broadway barber shop yesterday. He slapped her in the face and as a result was before Judge Sanders this morning.

Judge Sanders fined him $10 and costs and advised him to hereafter wait until his assailant secured the razor and got pretty close to him.

GIVEN AWAY

Lady's Fine Cloak or Jacket At the Opera House Saturday Night.

The person holding the lucky number can take their choice between a lady's fine cloak or jacket, which will be given away at Morton's Opera House Saturday night. Every one attending the performance of the Spooner Dramatic company this week will be given a number to the drawing. The number must be in the house on the night of the drawing. The garments are in L. B. Ogilvie & Company's window for inspection.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

Miss Mary Sargent and Mr. Douglas Williams United.

Mr. Douglas Williams, a well-known young blacksmith employed at the Illinois Central shops, and Miss Mary Sargent, a well-known young lady of Rowlandtown, were united in marriage at 6 o'clock last evening, at the residence of the bride.

Rev. M. E. Chappell, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, pronounced the ceremony, quite a crowd of friends and relatives being present.

Both are popular young people among those who know them.

LAID TO REST.

The Funeral of the Late Mr. J. G. Fisher a Large One.

The funeral of the late Mr. J. G. Fisher took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence on South Fourth street, and was one of the largest ever seen in the city.

The city council, police force and many of the county officers attended in a body, as did the Masonic fraternity. Mr. J. C. Tully conducted the services at the house, and the burial was at Oak Grove.

THE PAY TRAIN.

It Will Be Here on the 25th Inst.

A notice was today posted at the Illinois Central shops and union depot announcing that the pay train will pay off from Beaver Dam to Paducah on next Wednesday, the 25th.

The railroad boys will be glad as the merchants, who will also reap their benefits from its arrival.

A Lucky Editor.

A telegram received from Hawesville, Ky., yesterday, states that oil has been struck there by Jeff Sterrett, whose partner is Mr. M. W. LaRue, of this city. The flow was struck at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

For several months past the looking for oil had been in progress. The depth of the well is about 1200 feet, and several thousand dollars have been spent in boring. It is said that the well is a "gusher," a large reservoir, to all appearances, having been tapped. Mr. Sterrett is the editor of the Hawesville Plain Dealer. Several other wells will be bored by Messrs. LaRue and Sterrett.—Courier-Journal.

The Spooner Dramatic company will give a grand family matinee at the opera house Saturday afternoon, doors to open at 1:30 and performance to begin at 2 o'clock. "Little Mike," the child actor, will introduce several new specialties. Admission: Adults, 20 cents; children, 10 cents.

A CRITICAL CONDITION.

Young Rome Taylor Not Improving.

The latest advices from the Mort Shelby shooting scrape are that young Rome Taylor is in a critical condition, and is expected to succumb to his injuries. He has never been entirely conscious since he was struck by the hammer of young Al Shelby's gun, but has had lucid intervals.

Mort Shelby is said to be in a dangerous condition from blood poisoning, but this is discredited. The shooting may yet result in a death.

Citizens' Civic Club.

By mistake it was announced that the Y. M. C. A. course in civil and municipal government would begin last night. It should have been tonight instead. This course will not be conducted in formal class style, but by informal lecture and quiz. Addresses will be prepared upon special topics from time to time and the work will be of such a character as to interest and benefit all men who are lovers of good citizenship. Business and professional men will find this a helpful feature. The course is free to members. Prof. Geo. O. McCreight will have charge of this department, which is a guaranty of a high grade of work. The hour is 8 o'clock.

Assignment at Metropolis.

H. Amblingmeyer, dealer in dry goods and groceries at Metropolis, made an assignment yesterday morning for the benefit of his creditors. His liabilities, it is said, will foot up about $4,000, with assets $6,000 to $7,000. The announcement comes in the nature of a surprise, as Mr. Amblingmeyer's business was believed to be one of the most prosperous of its kind in the place. It is thought by his friends that he will be able to adjust his affairs satisfactorily in a short time so as to resume business.

For Old Mexico.

Mr. Wm. Lowe and wife, of Mayfield, and Mr. Bob Barrager, of Lowes, were in the city this morning enroute to Old Mexico, where they expect to locate. Mr. Lowe will engage in the handling of tobacco, and Mr. Barrager will, it is understood, represent the Mayfield woolen mills. They leave this afternoon on the steamer Clyde for St. Louis, from which point they will make the remainder of the trip by rail.

Journal Burned.

Last night about 9 o'clock a journal on a freight car burned and resulted in a small wreck at the Jackson street crossing on the main track. It required several hours to clear it.

MAYFIELD HAPPENINGS.

donor.

Mrs. T. E. Otterson, of South Mayfield, has left with the "Monitor" a turp of her own raising with a top three feet in length. How is this for a turp?

Miss Imogene Wilson, of Clarksville, Tenn., who visited the family of Maj. Melloy here, several months ago, came near losing her life a few days ago in a runaway accident.

Rev. H. Boyce Taylor, of Russellville, has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist church at Murray. Mr. Taylor is a son of Rev. W. C. Taylor, deceased, a pastor of the church here ten years ago.

The woolen mills are running day and night to keep up with the increased demand for their superior goods. Last week, in two days, they collected $10,000, which looks as though the promised good times had already begun.

The residence of R. M. Vance, on the Bolinger farm, two and a half miles southeast of town, was burned last night, with the contents. The fire was accidental and the information is that there was no insurance.

Three applicants for the Mayfield post office under the McKinley regime are circulating petitions and getting numerous signatures. The gentlemen are Messrs. O. B. Happy, who filled the office during President Harrison's administration, L. W. Key and F. M. McCain. All of the three are staunch Republicans, very popular with their party, and, no matter which of the three gets the appointment, Mayfield will have a good postmaster.
